(F). Once a police officer has exhausted all three of his/her family sickness days, the officer can use a personal sick day for a family sick day. Absence due to caring for a sick family member may be determined to be leave time under the FMLA and the terms and conditions of FMLA must be followed.

Section 2 – Reasons for Deductible Sick Leave

The following events shall constitute deductible sick leave time:

(A). Personal illness or incapacity to such an extent as to be rendered unable thereby to perform the duties of his/her present position; provided, however, that said member is found incapable of performing his/her duties by a qualified Town physician. Such leave taken may be determined to be leave time under the FMLA and the terms and conditions of FMLA must be followed.

(B.) Attendance upon members of the immediate family of the member, whose illness requires the care of such member, twenty-four (24) hour maximum, additional time at the discretion of the Chief of Police. Such leave taken may be determined to be leave time under the FMLA and the terms and conditions of FMLA must be followed.

(C.) Immediate family shall be defined as the same under the bereavement clause, Article XI, Section 1, Paragraph (A).

Section 3 – Use of Sick Leave Upon Retirement

(A.) Upon retirement in good standing from the Town's employment, after a minimum of ten (10) years employment, the employee shall be paid in cash for any unused cumulative sick leave earned under Section 1(A) of this Article X.

Section 7 – Paternity/Maternity Leave

Any member covered by this Agreement will receive a five (5) day paid paternity/maternity leave at the time of the birth or legal adoption of a child under the terms and conditions of FMLA. This leave will start on the day of the birth or legal adoption. However, if birth or adoption occurs on his/her day off, this leave will begin on the first scheduled day he/she is to report back for duty. This leave will be granted regardless of any type of birth. Female officers shall receive maternity leave consistent with the Rhode Island Parental Leave Act and the FMLA. Request for an approval of such time must follow the terms of FMLA and if approved, such time will run concurrently with an approved FMLA leave. FMLA leave is unpaid. However, members are to use all other designated leave time including sick days, maternity, or any other accrued leave including vacation while out on FMLA.

Section 8 – Military Leave

(A). Members are covered by USERRA, the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 (USERRA, 38 U.S.C. § 4301 - 4335). ARTICLE X

Section 1 – Hours of Work Week

(A). The regular work week for members of the Johnston Police Department shall be based upon a rotating schedule whereby each member, except Patrol Commander, detective Commander, Traffic Commander, Records Commander, BCI Commander, Prosecution Officer(s), Detectives, Juvenile Officer, School Liaison and DARE Officers (during school year), and all Administrative Staff Officers, shall work four (4) consecutive days then shall be entitled to two (2) consecutive days off. The aforementioned positions (Detectives included) shall work five (5) consecutive days (Monday – Friday) and shall be off two (2) consecutive days (Saturday and Sunday). The work schedule for regular Detectives shall be outlined in subsection (B). Regular Detective shall mean all other officers who receive the pay grade higher than their normal rank.

(B). Detectives assigned to the second watch (8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.) shall work a schedule of five (5) days on and two (2) days off. They will also include coverage for weekends as follows: One (1) Detective will be scheduled to work one (1) weekend on a rotating basis allowing coverage for every weekend throughout the year, not to exceed one (1) weekend per month. Those who work the weekend for that particular week will be compensated with the Friday preceding and the Monday after said weekend. In the event of a shortage caused on a particular weekend due to sick leave or vacations, etc. there will be at least one (1) Detective assigned.

(C). Each shift shall include two (2) supervisor minimum (Patrol) on all shifts. There shall be a two (2) detective (4 to 12 shift) minimum, not including supervisors and BCI. There shall be five (5) patrol beats staffed with patrol officers for each patrol shift, provided no more than two (2) officers so assigned are allowed on scheduled leave per shift, excluding “block vacations”, an officer’s birthday, and officers assigned to dispatch.

Section 2 – Overtime Rate

Any hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on any shift shall be compensated at the rate of time and one-half. For the purpose of computing the overtime rate to be paid, the following schedule shall apply:

(A). Working more than fifteen (15) minutes but less than thirty (30) minutes, the officer shall be paid one-half (1/2) hour overtime.

(B). Working more than thirty (30) minutes but less than sixty (60) minutes, the officer shall be paid one (1) hour overtime.

(C). Any officer who works a double shift – sixteen (16) hours straight – or sixteen (16) hours in a seventeen (17) hour period – will be paid time and one-half for the second eight (8) hours (hours 9-17). If an officer works four (4) hours or less, he/she will be paid time and one-half; after the first four (4) hours, they will be paid time and one-half.

(1) Overtime will be paid on the payday following the week in which the overtime was worked.

Section 3 – Call Back Pay Policy

Any member not on duty who shall be called back to duty shall be paid a minimum of four (4) hours pay at the overtime rate of pay.

Call back for overtime shall be by a rotating seniority list within each division/bureau and rank. Example: if a patrolman is needed for call back in the patrol division/bureau, at the commencement of this contract, the most senior patrol officer in patrol shall be called first, and then the next one in seniority and so on. However, once a senior patrol officer in patrol accepts the overtime call back, then that officer is excluded from further overtime call back until the rotating list is exhausted. Example: if there are ten (10) patrol officers on the seniority list, and the three (3) most senior officers decline offered overtime, and the fourth (4th) most senior accepts the call back overtime, then the officer is excluded from future overtime until the rotating overtime list is exhausted. Call back will resume with the most senior officer(s) who has not worked overtime, regardless if the officer(s) declined or were unavailable in previous call back procedures. The only exception that would allow an officer, who has already worked an overtime, to work a second overtime prior to the list being exhausted, is in the event that no other officer accepts the overtime needed. If an officer works more than one overtime, as a result of no other officer accepting overtime call back, that officer shall be considered to have worked only one overtime, and shall not be by-passed for more than one overtime worked. The aforementioned shall apply to all ranks and divisions.

Section 4 – Substitution

The right to substitute at any time shall be permitted; provided, however, that permission shall have been obtained from the Superior Officer in charge of the shift sixteen (16) hours prior to the substitution or unless an emergency situation exists.

Any ranking officer may substitute for any other ranking officer.

It shall be the discretion of an officer to work a double shift for sixteen (16) straight hours, subject, however to the Chief of Police, or his designee, approving said substitution, and subject to the Chief's, or his designee's, discretion for an officer to work a double shift. Substitutions shall be paid at the straight –time rate of the officer for whom substitution is made. There shall be allowed a maximum of two (2) double shift substitutions per calendar month for each officer.

These substitutions are to be allowed with no restrictions except as stated herein.

Section 5 – Court Time

Any member of the Johnston Police Department who is required, during his/her off duty hours, to attend any court for the purpose of testifying shall be compensated at the overtime rate of pay, and shall be entitled to a minimum of four (4) hours pay. Any and all expenses incurred by such police officer, including but not limited to travel expenses, etc., shall be paid for by the Police Department of the Town of Johnston.

Any off duty officer placed on stand-by status relative to a court proceeding shall report to the Police Station. However, whenever possible, he/she shall be properly notified at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to such stand-by. Any officer so reporting shall be paid at the overtime rate of pay and shall be entitled to a minimum of four (4) hours pay.

Any such police officer who is on stand-by at the Police Station awaiting a court appearance shall be obligated to perform normal police functions, if asked.

Section 6 – Compensatory Time

Any and all overtime situations shall be, at the discretion of the officer, paid either monetarily, or be received as compensatory time. There will be no restrictions on receiving compensatory time except as stated herein within this section. Compensatory time can be taken at four (4) hour intervals, as long as it is the first or last four (4) hours of duty. When taking a shift off with compensatory time, an officer will use 7.5 hours of time.

At minimum staffing levels, only two officers will be called back for overtime to accommodate two officers utilizing compensatory time on any given shift within their bureau. For example, if the minimum staffing level in the Uniform Patrol Division/Bureau is established at four (4) officers for the road and four (4) officers are scheduled for the road, then only two (2) officers will be allowed to utilize compensatory time. Another example offered, is if six (6) officers are scheduled for the road in patrol, only four (4) officers will be allowed to utilize compensatory time off. Call back will be for two (2) officers utilizing compensatory time. At no time shall a whole shift be allowed to take compensatory time off.

The maximum amount of compensatory time an officer can accumulate is four-hundred eighty (480) hours. Officers cannot create their own overtime by utilizing their compensatory time. No officer in any Division/Bureau will be ordered back to fill any vacancy caused by compensatory time.

Section 1 – Municipal Pension Trust

There shall be established a Municipal Pension Trust. The Agreement establishing the Municipal Pension Trust shall be executed and provided to Local 307.

Effective July 1, 2010, new hires are to become part of the Municipal Employees Retirement System.

Section 2 – Pension Escalation

(A) All officers, who retire from the Johnston Police Department as referenced herein after 1 July 2005, shall receive a three percent (3%) compounded COLA on all annual pension amounts received. The three percent (3%) compounded COLA payments shall begin in the twenty-fifth (25th) month following the date of the officer's retirement.

(B) Any officer who retires from the Johnston Police Department after 1 July 2005 shall be entitled to receive annually, in equal monthly installments, a sum equal to the applicable interest of the average of the officer's three highest years of gross pay, as documented on the government's W2 tax form issued to the officer, excepting monies paid to the Town of Johnston, which were funded by private companies to hire officers for non-municipal detail assignments and the officer's gun / qualification allowance, which will be excluded from the above-gross pay amount. Any officer who retires from the Johnston Police Department after 1 July 1979 but prior to 1 July 2005 shall be entitled to receive annually, in equal monthly installments, a sum equal to one-half (1/2) of his/her annual salary for the remainder of his/her life.

(1) Any officer who has retired from the Johnston Police Department prior to 1 July 1979, and retired at a fixed annual pension, shall be entitled to receive annually, in equal monthly installments, a sum equal to fifty (50) percent of his/her retirement rate of pay. Example: If a retiree who retired prior to 1 July 1979 receives a fixed annual pension salary of ten-thousand dollars ($10,000.00) and, in the event the active members receive a six (6) percent salary increase through negotiations, the retirees shall receive fifty (50) percent of the six (6) percent salary increase or three (3) percent of his/her fixed annual pension of ten-thousand dollars ($10,000.00), giving him/her a fixed annual pension of ten-thousand three-hundred dollars ($10,300.00) for the ensuing fiscal year. For clarification of this section, the retiree who retired prior to 1 July 1979, shall not be included in subsection (C) hereafter for the purpose of "annual salary" definition.

(C) To clarify and simplify subsection (A), and (B) of Section 2 above, the following examples are offered:

(1) An officer retires from the department after 1 July 2005 and after serving twenty (20) years, and the officer's three (3) highest years of gross pay as specified in Section 2(B) of this Section above are $70,000, $70,000 and $100,000. The retirement pension for the officer would be fifty (50) percent of the average of the officer's three (3) highest gross year earnings (i.e. $80,000) which would result in a $40,000 retirement pension plus a three (3) percent compounded COLA beginning in the 25th month following the date of the officer's retirement as specified in Section 2(A) of this Section above. An officer retires from the Department after 1 July 1979 but prior to 1 July 2005, after serving twenty (20) years, and at the time of his/her retirement, he/she was receiving a salary of $10,000 annually for the rank he/she held. Upon retiring, he/she will be eligible to receive fifty (50) percent or one-half (1/2) of his/her $10,000 annual salary, making his/her retirement payment five thousand dollars ($5,000) annually and in addition, they will also receive fifty (50) percent or one-half (1/2) of their longevity and holiday which will be added into their retirement payment.

(1A) All officers with twenty (20) years of service or more on the Johnston Police Department, upon retiring, will continue to receive family prescription plan.

(2) An officer retires from the department after 1 July 2005 and after serving twenty-five (25) years, and the officer's three (3) highest years of gross pay as specified in Section 2(B) of this Section above are $70,000, $70,000 and $100,000. The retirement pension for the officer would be 65% of the average of the officer's three highest gross year earnings (i.e. $80,000) which would result in a $52,000 retirement pension plus a three percent (3%) compounded COLA beginning in the twenty-fifth (25th) month following the date of the officer's retirement as specified in Section 2(A) of this Section above. An officer retires from the department after 1 July 1979 but prior to 1 July 2005, after serving twenty-five (25) years, and at the time of his/her retirement, he/she was receiving a salary of $10,000.00 annually for the rank he/she held. Upon retiring, he/she will be eligible to receive sixty-five (65) percent of his/her $10,000.00 annual salary, making his/her retirement payment six thousand five hundred dollars ($6,500.00) annually.

(3) An officer retires from the department after 1 July 2005 and after serving thirty (30) years, and the officer's three highest years of gross pay as specified in Section 2(B) of this Section are $70,000, $70,000 and $100,000. The retirement pension for the officer would be seventy percent (70%) of the average of the officer's three highest gross year earnings (i.e. $80,000) which would result in a $56,000 retirement pension plus a three percent (3%) compounded COLA beginning in the twenty-fifth (25th) month following the date of the officer's retirement as specified in Section 2(A) of this Section above. An officer retires from the department after 1 July 1979 but prior to 1 July 2005, after serving thirty (30) years and at the time of his/her retirement he/she was receiving a salary of $10,000.00 annually for the rank he/she held. Upon retirement he/she will be eligible to receive seventy (70) percent of his/her $10,000.00 annual salary, making his/her retirement payment seven thousand dollars ($7,000.00) annually.

(4) There shall be a mandatory thirty (30) year retirement for all members of the Johnston Police Department. This retirement shall be implemented as follows: All officers who shall have at least thirty (30) years of completed service on the Johnston Police Department and who shall have attained the age of sixty (60) shall retire from service. No one shall be compelled to retire until he or she has satisfied both elements of this clause (30 years of service and age 60). Any military service time purchased by an officer shall not be used in the computation of the term "completed service" unless the individual officer chooses to use it.

An officer retiring at fifty (50) percent will then receive five thousand five hundred dollars ($5,500.00) annually, and the officer retiring at sixty-five (65) percent will then receive seven thousand one hundred fifty dollars ($7,150.00) annually.

(E) Pension Credit for Military Service:

(1) As of 1 July 1985, any permanent member of the Police Department who has served on active duty in the armed forces of the United States shall be allowed to buy back time spent in the active service up to a maximum of two (2) years.

(3) When submitting a request to purchase said active duty military time, proof of said time shall also be submitted, i.e., a DD-214.

Section 3 – Early Retirement Provisions

Members of the Johnston Police may retire in accordance with the following provisions:

(A) 1-10 years

If an officer resigns between one (1) and ten (10) years of service on the Johnston Police Department, said officer is not vested in the pension plan and may not participate, but is entitled to a lump sum return of his/her contributions, plus interest equal to the interest rate used by the State of Rhode Island Municipal Employees Retirement System. He/she will receive no benefits. He/she will not be considered to have retired.

He/she will receive no benefits. He/she will not be considered to have retired. The giving back of retirement funds dates back only to the time the pension plan became effective; which was approximately 1977 or thereabouts.

(C) There is available an option if this employee should wish to leave his/her retirement fund intact, not withdrawing any amount until that amount has been in for a period of twenty (20) years, then that employee will receive a pension beginning the 21st year, at the rate of twenty-five (25) percent of a sum equal to the average of the officers three highest gross year earnings as determined in Section 2(B) above, at the time he/she left the police department with no further benefits assuming the officer has served ten (10) years or more. The officer will receive a three (3) percent compounded COLA on the annual pension amounts received, beginning in the twenty fifth (25th) month following the date of the twenty (20) year period referenced above.
